

Divine Balance

And the blessings of the knowledge of good and evil

By: Eris Willow

There Must Be Both

There is only one solid truth that holds everything together and that is in order to have the light you must also have darkness. Evil is just as necessary as goodness. In order to live we must be evil, but that doesn't necessarily mean bad. All it means is that you must acquire resource in order to sustain your life. The Fox commits evil by hunting it's pray for food. Us humans aren't far from doing the same thing. Even farming crops takes a toll on the land.

Spell Work Advise

Be mindful of the consequences of your spell when you cast it. Karma is very real and it can come back to bite you in the end. You might cast a money spell, but the place it may come from might be dark. I've seen first hand the effects of sex magic gone wrong where the victim can't get the other person out of their minds.

You Are Eternal

Your soul is eternal and once this life is over your soul continues to exist. It just changes form. This life you're living now is a learning experience. Use it to grow wise and have fun with it.

Who Should You Work With

My top picks are Baphomet, Lucifer, Stolas and Lilith, but those may not be correct for you. Do your research and figure out what the best fit is for you.